

ST JAMES' WHOLE SCHOOL

LEARNING CHALLENGE:

100 GREAT BLACK BRITONS

The National Education Union are hosting a Schools and Young People's Competition for children across the UK, with amazing prizes to be won! Here at St James', we thought we would open the competition to the whole school and create our very own:

100 Great Black Britons Virtual Gallery!

Your challenge is to create a unique and innovative project to celebrate the work and legacy of one or more Great Black Britons. This could be in the form of a video, song, poem, artwork, poster or any other fabulous ideas you have.

Your project can be created independently or with others.

Once you have created your masterpiece, please take a picture of it and send it via email to: ClassFive@st-james-rusholme.manchester.sch.uk

Your wonderful entry will be uploaded to our 100 Great Black Britons Virtual Gallery on our school website for everyone to see. You will also receive further instructions about entering the Schools and Young People's Competition.

Please send your entries for the 100 Great Black Britons Virtual Gallery by Friday 3rd July. Entries to the Schools and Young People's Competition must be submitted by 30th September.

We can't wait to see your awesome entries to the gallery!
